

World Archery News

January 2011

World Archery Newsletter

Olympic Scholarship for Argentinean Coach

The Olympic Solidarity and the National Olympic Committee of Argentina, with the approval of FITA, have granted Mr Pablo Daniel BASGALL with an Olympic scholarship for coach to attend the spring training programme to be given by the "Centro de Alto Rendimiento" from Saint Cugat del Valles and at the "Instituto Nacional de Educacion Fisica de Catalunya" in Barcelona (ESP) from 14 April to 12 July 2011. It is a general training course on sciences applied to sport for coaches.

Pablo Daniel BASGALL was a national archer who represented his country 11 times at international level. He won a bronze and a silver medal at the 1995 Pan-American Games and the bronze at the South American Games in 2006. In 2009 he started a new career as a physical education teacher. He was the recipient of an Olympic Solidarity scholarship for coaches back in 2009, when he attended a specific training in archery at the FITA Middle East Archery Centre in Cairo. He also takes an active part as coach of the national teams for men, women, juniors and cadets.

For information on the Olympic Solidarity programmes for coaches, please contact your National Olympic Committee.

